#SAINTNATION

July 11, 2019

Greetings Saint Nation!

I hope all is well over the summer? We are plugging away with improvements for the next school year to make sure children are safe and secure to do their very best to learn each day. I am happy to report Sandalwood High School has been designated an "A" school for the third straight year. This is a testament to you Saint Nation, who hold true to the belief that ALL children have the ability to learn. We thank you for your continued support in making Sandalwood a great school.

As an added bonus, if you like sports we just received word our October 18th home football game will be televised on ESPN. We hope to have our stadium filled to capacity when this game takes place on national television. Make sure you are in attendance Saints!
