A Free and Reduced-Price Meal Application is not required if all of your school-aged children attend a CEP program participating school listed above. If you have a child that attends one of the schools above, but another that attends a school not listed above or all of your children attend a school not listed above, you will need to complete a Free and Reduced-Price Meal Application that includes all of your children if you desire to qualify for free or reduced-price meal benefits. An application can be completed online at <https://free-reduced-lunch.duvalschools.org>. A printable version is located at <https://dcps.duvalschools.org/foodservice> or it can be obtained from your child's school or contact the Food Service Department at 904-732-5145. Please do not hesitate to contact our office if we can assist you further.

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-3027) found online at: http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html, and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:
