~A Day of Fun in the Sun~

Special guests: Bosom Buddies of Jacksonville

Let's come together to honor and support those touched by cancer in our community. The day will include free surf lessons for cancer survivors by Saltwater Cowgirls and SOS, a family style brunch and lots of fun.

This is a special event just for those sisters who are ready to celebrate what they have overcome by learning to surf in a safe and sister friendly environment. Let's catch a wave together!

The Linda Netti

Kayak Challenge and In The Pink

This event was started because we lost a very dear friend to breast cancer. In the beginning we set up the event to help one woman battling breast cancer at a time. The event was such a success, we decided to sponsor In The Pink so we can help hundreds of ladies fight this terrible disease. We are asking for donations to help raise money for this wonderful cause. All the money collected goes directly to women in need
