

SAMUEL WOLFSON

January 10, 2019

Hello Wolfpack family,

This is Mr. Begley, principal of Samuel Wolfson School for Advanced Studies. I hope you and your family had a restful break.

I have great news concerning next year. I wanted to give you a quick call to let you know the district has changed the start and end time for Wolfson to align with the other dedicated magnet schools in the district. This change will begin in August and will be of great benefit to those students traveling from the other parts of the city. Next year school will begin at 8:10 and end at 2:55pm.

We are winding up winter sports and starting to launch into spring sports. Please look on our web page to find specific ways you can come out and support our Wolfpack athletes.

I want to remind you that all communication for daily announcements, robo calls, counselors' website and newsletters are on our website. Log onto duvalschools.org/wolfson to view. Have a great evening, and as always, Go Pack.
