

AP US Government

AP®

This course is the study of constitutional underpinnings, civil liberties and civil rights, political culture and socialization, citizen participation and influence, political institutions and policy making that are the foundation of modern U.S. government and politics. This course will help you contribute to the national discourse.