

Dear Educators,

The Cummer Museum of Art & Gardens invites you and your students to participate in the 2021 Virtual Arts4All Festival on May 13! The 2021 Virtual Arts4All Festival will include art-making activities, interactive music and dance lessons, gallery and garden tours, and live engagement from the Cummer Museum. Take a peek by clicking the image below to learn more.

We are opening up registration first to schools that would have participated in the 2020 in-person Festival. See below for further details and a link to complete the registration form for your classroom to secure your spot! Registration will then open for students and families across our region so anyone can participate in this enriching experience.

Will you provide supplies for the artmaking activity portion of the Festival?

Yes! We will deliver art kits to each registered classroom. You can provide the delivery address (if different from the school address) when you complete the registration form. Or if it's preferable, you can pick up your classroom's art kits at the Museum.

What partners will be participating?

To name a few:

Arvid Smith, musician

Devon Schlegel, Special Needs Fellow at Cathedral Arts Project and board certified art therapist

Connecting Through Music and First Coast Music Therapy

How Can My Students Participate?

Complete the registration for your classroom by April 16!

Last year's Virtual Arts4All Festival is also live on the Museum's website and ready to engage and inspire students with differing abilities! We know that high quality learning opportunities in the arts are important and beneficial for students with special needs, and we look forward to connecting art and music with you this academic year and beyond!
