

EHS School Advisory Council Meeting

November
26, 2019

5:30 p.m.

“We cannot solve our problems with the same thinking as when we created them.”

■ Albert Einstein

New Agenda Items	Notes
Welcome & Introductions	The meeting was called to order at 5:30 by Mr. Redman, SAC Chairperson. Mr. Redman started the meeting by having everyone introduce themselves. Present: Sara Bravo, Principal Albert Buckner, Assistant Principal Don Redman, SAC Chairperson Donald Lauro, Parent Alison Kearley, Community Member Daniel Reed, Teacher Jennifer Hammock, Parent & SAC Vice Chairperson Nathan Hammock, Student Linda Dyke, Parent Absence Excused: Josh Colvin, Community Member Vasco Eagle, Parent Absence Unexcused: Kevin Douglas, Community Member Veronica Funes, Parent *Will be voted out in Jan meeting Yaguob Elmahi, Parent *Will be voted out in Jan meeting
Approve October 2019 SAC Minutes	Donald Lauro moved to approve the minutes and Daniel Reed seconded the motion. Approval of the October Minutes.
District Advisory Council Updates	Mr. Redman gave the District Advisory Council update and shared the following information: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A Chartwells representative attended the meeting which was held November 25, 2019. The representative shared information about healthy food and menus that are being used by Chartwells. Mr. Redman shared Chartwell’s flyers with the committee. • Dr. Greene attended the meeting and announced the showing of a movie entitled “Love Them First Lessons from Lucy Laney Elementary School.” Described as One heartbreaking setback as her struggling elementary school fights to get of “the list.” • The School Choice Expo will be January 11, 2020.
November Principal’s Report	Climate and culture on campus has greatly improved in the last month. The principal and other administrators assessed the concerning uptick in altercations and unrest to be temporary and situational. There has not been an altercation on campus in over 3 weeks and the only police-involved issue has been drugs. Recent tragedy of the loss of a 2019 graduate hit the student body and faculty hard and the efforts to come together are noticed from a culture perspective as well. District media is coming out the week of December 2nd – shooting a video with students to highlight the positive culture of the school as a way to speak out against the negative media attention in October. Staffing Update: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • JROTC Program positions have been filled • ELA and Social Studies additional positions have been filled • Still searching for math

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Making a change in dean position Greatest challenge currently is our Senior Cohort graduation rate progress. We are 2% points lower in grad readiness than we were last year. We still have 106 seniors who have not met their reading concordant score. Ongoing boot camps and registration for ACT/SAT sessions. Will hold a COC vs. Diploma session for select seniors on Dec 4th. After School Tutoring has kicked off with more success than in the 1819 school year. Solid group of teachers. JUST received FSS grant to provide materials, snacks and celebrations for those students on a regular basis. Hitting the ground running with state retakes in December upon our return and all High Accountability areas will take their PMA 2 in January. Culinary program has started and 4 students will have their first opportunity to provide appetizers at a superintendent's luncheon in December.
Closing	Mr. Redman announced that the Sheriff's Office has a community meeting every third Thursday where they discuss issues going on in the community. The meeting is called the Sheriff's Watch. 7 p.m. time. Ms. Bravo informed the committee that starting in January we will no longer have JSO Officers on campus daily. Ms. Dyke asked about School Safety Assistants. Ms. Bravo explained that the School Safety Assistants are hired for Elementary Schools and their sole purpose is active shooter situations. Mr. Redman asked Alison Kearley if she had any announcements from Full Service Schools. She announced that several families will be receiving Thanksgiving baskets. Mr. Redman said he attends the Full Service Schools meeting once a month and invited others to attend. Donald Lauro moved to adjourn the meeting at this time and the motion was seconded by Daniel Reed the meeting was adjourned at 6:13 p. m. Next SAC Meeting Date: Tuesday, January 28th  Mid Year Stakeholder's Meeting (No meeting in December)