STRATEGIC PLAN ALIGNMENT: Sustain Engagement of Parents, Caregivers & Community

Newsfeed: A Message from the Executive Director

Welcome to Duval County Public Schools! We are so very excited to share the work of the Family and Community Engagement (FACE) department with you, as it is our mission to ensure this great district is supported and shared throughout the Jacksonville community!

FACE consists of the 5000 Role Models of Excellence Project (a minority-male mentoring initiative), faith-based and business partnerships, volunteer services, the Parent Academy, extended day programs, driver education programs, community education, athletics, and JROTC programs.

Since July 2017, we have implemented the following changes to ensure we can better support the work of the district:

1. Retirement Outreach: We now have a Retired Educator and Support Team recognizing the institutional knowledge that leaves our buildings each year, and to request their involvement as volunteers in our district at least one hour each week once they've gotten some "rest." Twenty-two retirees signed-up to begin volunteering in this first cohort.
2. Creation of a volunteer database with streamlined functionality: While we effectively provide background screenings for our volunteers, we have not had a database of volunteers to support the district. Building on a pre-existing contract with Samaritan Technologies, the new database will also send automated email updates to volunteers to provide a more personal experience. A new online volunteer training will be the final step to the clearance process.
3. Development of a professional development component: To better support schools, the department has submitted its first professional development plan to share strategies to maximize community and family supports in boosting student achievement.

Tia Leathers
Executive Director,
Family and Community
Engagement

We look forward to working with you as a member of Team Duval!

Sincerely,

Tia M. Leathers

FACE Status Updates: Parent Academy

Program Description:

The Parent Academy (PA) is a free family resource that promotes parental involvement, enhances student achievement and supports a caregiver's personal and individual growth. PA courses are offered daily in schools, libraries, community centers and faith-based institutions throughout the community. These free courses are designed to align all stakeholders' needs in a convenient location near their home or workplace.

The 2018 Parent Climate Survey included questions regarding a number of district initiatives. Based on the 2018 Parent Survey results, 46% of the parents surveyed desire in-person courses and informational sessions based on a wide variety of topics that include, but are not limited to, student academics, parenting support, and personal growth opportunities.

Regan Copeland
Supervisor,
Parent Academy

Implementation:

- A total of 8,237 parents and caregivers participated in PA courses during the 2017-2018 school year. This marks the fifth consecutive year that PA has surpassed its participation goal. Over 99% of all attendees surveyed reported that the course was worthwhile and that they would recommend the course to another parent and 98% of attendees surveyed reported they would attend another PA course in the future.
- Creation and distribution of course flyers for specific interest groups have been implemented to meet the particular needs of parents and caregivers.
- In addition, the PA is working diligently to share course information, pictures, announcement, and flyers in the JAX4KIDS newsletter, which is circulated to over 200,000 community members (including each of our DCPS students to share with their families). Courses are also shared on the DCPS and PA Facebook pages, DCPS Twitter, Duval Weekly (employee e-newsletter), and Duval Digest (community e-newsletter). A PA banner is continuously posted on the district's website, and flyers for PA engagement events are also added to the district's homepage when applicable.

NEW/NEXT STEPS:

- The Parent Academy has requested to add a new tab to FOCUS accounts that will allow the PA team to enter course attendance by parent or caregiver in order to determine a correlation between course attendance and student progress.
- In an effort to extend outreach, the PA will be adding a Twitter account to increase our social media presence.
- A juvenile court judge has requested in-house PA courses to provide additional support and resources for families whose children are referred to the judiciary by the Department of Juvenile Justice. Course will begin in early September.

SWOT Analysis

Strengths 	Launched in 2013, the Parent Academy is an established program that offers a variety of courses and family engagement events for our parents and caregivers. Ongoing support from schools and community partners who continue to host and facilitate courses demonstrates the value and appreciation for this free family resource. In addition to community support, the Parent Academy continues to exceed its annual attendance goal and with overwhelmingly positive evaluation data. The Parent Academy has continued to implement ways to ensure that the hard-to-reach parent is receiving the information offered via the course catalog by providing copies to government offices, faith-based organizations, libraries, and community centers. In addition, courses have been held at women's centers, apartment complexes, post-secondary education sites, and numerous community events held throughout the city. The Parent Academy is always open to offering additional courses outside of the catalog for those who otherwise could not attend a previously scheduled class if requested by a specific audience organization. Additionally, the Parent Academy has a loyal group of Parent Leaders that serve as advocates in the various communities across the city.
Weaknesses 	While also a strength of the Parent Academy, having numerous partner involved also lends to a greater potential for challenges. There are many moving parts when scheduling, marketing, hosting, facilitating and communicating the specifics of a Parent Academy course; this having multiple partners involved is often a complicated task. In addition, with Jacksonville being the largest city by area in the contiguous United States, ensuring outreach, awareness and opportunity reaches all communities within the district proves to be equally as challenging.
Opportunities 	The Parent Academy continues to attract and recruit new partners throughout the city. These partnerships bring new opportunities for expanding outreach and sharing valuable information with our caregivers. PA plans to present at trainings throughout the year for school-based staff with the intent of sharing program information and available resources. Additionally, monthly presentations to community organizations, and advertisements in local family blogs and JAX4KIDS, and social media pushes via DCPS, Parent Academy and JAX Chamber will lead to increased awareness of PA offerings.
Threats 	The lack of preparation and proper accommodations by schools and partner facilities for previously scheduled Parent Academy courses can lead to frustrated parents, caregivers, and community members who may already be a part of our hard-to-reach population. A recent reduction in staff presents further challenges to the goal of increasing program awareness, community outreach, and course offerings.

FACE Status Updates: 5000 Role Models of Excellence

Lawrence Hills
Supervisor,
5000 Role Models of Excellence Project

Program Description:

The 5000 Role Models of Excellence (Duval Chapter) is a leadership development program for at-risk minority male students referred to as “students of promise.” This initiative has been highly successful in Miami-Dade, FL for over 25 years. The program was adopted by Duval County Public Schools for the start of the 2015-2016 school year. Then, students from five Duval County middle schools and five Duval County high schools were targeted to benefit from improved academic performance, reduced truancy, reduced delinquency and increased pathways to success through positive interactions, experiences and opportunities. Since then, an additional middle school and high school were added and over 500 students have participated in the leadership development program, accumulating 12,500 community service hours. The program provides exposure educationally, vocationally and culturally.

Implementation:

The overarching premise of the program is to match students with adult male role models who conduct life skills and career workshops. In addition, the adult advisors help to coordinate potentially life-changing experiences for the students. Most of the participants would be first generation college students and are selected by school administrators. Students must meet at least one criterion in two of the three qualifying categories which include: Socio-Economic Status, School Performance and/or Family Relations. Key components of the 5000 Role Models of Excellence are college tours, STEM activities, financial literacy workshops, internships, job shadow experiences, community service projects and scholarships. Successful outcomes for the program include a 23% increase in overall Grade Point Averages, 80% decrease in (or not any) behavioral referrals, 92% promotion rate to the next grade level, 95% graduation rate for high school seniors and 99% had no involvement with the Judicial system.

Next Steps:

The next steps for the 5000 Role Models of Excellence will be to expand incrementally to six additional schools over the course of the next three years for a total of 20 schools by 2020-2021. This expansion will be inclusive of elementary schools in the feeder pattern for the current middle and high schools and alternative funding sources will be sought to help offset the cost of expansion. Additionally, the 5000 Role Models of Excellence will partner with Career and Technical Education (CTE) to expose students to certification opportunities at the Career Academies. The 5000 Role Models of Excellence continuously seeks to forge community and business partnerships aimed at increasing private funding prospects for student activities, trainings and scholarships.

5000 Role Models of Excellence Project (Duval)

*Denotes new school sites slated for the start of the 2018-2019 school year.

SWOT Analysis: 5000 Role Models of Excellence (cont.)

SWOT Analysis

Strengths

The program structure of the 5000 Role Models of Excellence has created a balance between nurturing and holding students accountable that has resulted in a 95% high school graduation rate.

The 5000 Role Models of Excellence has been able to forge partnerships with members of the business, government, non-profit and faith based communities, in order to create activities and events that supplement direct classroom instruction in the areas of STEM.

Weaknesses

Current state legislation and subsequent Duval County School Board policy prevents the use of vehicles designed to transport more than 10 students (i.e. Executive Vans), which is the most efficient form of transporting 12-15 students from various schools, to STEM related services and/or events.

The 5000 Role Models of Excellence program is not allowed to expend funds on meals associated with events taking place after hours and on the weekends.

Opportunities

Expanding the program to Title I elementary schools within the current 5000 Role Models of Excellence middle-high school feeder pattern would allow for earlier intervention, which would likely lead to increased outcomes related to graduation rates and development of a post-secondary success plan.

Developing an internal partnership between the Career Technical Education (CTE) department and the 5000 Role Models of Excellence middle schools could create a pathway to certification in STEM and trade related career fields.

Threats

Potential fiscal mandates on school districts by the State of Florida could cause consideration of a reduction in the budget for programs designed to target Florida students with the largest achievement gaps (i.e. Black and Hispanic males), which could slow progress in overall graduation rates.

“School Choice” practices may interrupt the traditional school feeder patterns which could have an impact on the continuity of students transitioning from a 5000 Role Models of Excellence middle school to a 5000 Role Models of Excellence high school.

FACE Status Updates: Athletics

Tammie Talley
District Athletic Director

Program Description:

Athletics is a distinguished area within the Family and Community Engagement (FACE) department which supports the FACE work. With 42 total middle and high school schools offering sports in our district, athletics is an area in which parental involvement is always flourishing. Those relationships continue to be leveraged to ensure parents are also informed of additional ways to be educated, involved and engaged. The Parent Academy was utilized as a vehicle by which parents were able to learn more about athletic eligibility, middle-school sports, and academic supports for student-athletes through and beyond high school. Likewise, the district athletic office has been a valuable tool to further increase family and community engagement to our schools.

Athletic programs are offered in 17 public high schools and 25 middle schools. At the high school level, we offer 36 sports for boys & girls on both the Junior Varsity and Varsity levels and 12 sports in middle school.

Implementation:

Our student-athletes benefit from a number of community partnerships such as Project 17, which is a partnership with the Jacksonville Sports Medicine Program, the NFL Foundation, the Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation, the City of Jacksonville, Jacksonville University, and Duval County Public Schools. The vision for Project 17 is to place full-time athletic trainers in all 17 high schools with athletic programs by 2020, progressively adding full-time athletic trainers each year.

Additionally, Athletics connects with many business partners in the community to provide scholarships and shadowing experiences to our student-athletes. They include, but are not limited to Brooks Rehabilitation, 1010XL Jax Sports Radio, GCA Service Group, Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp and Dreams Come True.

The District Athletic Office has an annual plan in conjunction with the maintenance department to improve and maintain the athletic facilities of the district. We also provide guidance to the school-based athletic personnel for the maintenance and improvement of athletic facilities. Athletics develops plans with the facilities department to oversee the construction of projects for new athletic facilities where applicable. In addition, we oversee scoreboard repairs, the replacement schedule, as well as the resurfacing schedules for gym floors, tracks & tennis courts.

Next Steps:

- ✓ Promotion of Programs
- ✓ Increased Coaching Education for Professional Development
- ✓ Identify funding for facilities and equipment

SWOT Analysis: Athletics

SWOT Analysis

Strengths

One of the major strengths of the district athletic office is the number of sports we offer. Duval County is a leader by our participation in the FHSAA. Our student-athletes are college ready and we have a coach's certification program that is sought after in the state of Florida. Project 17 is the district's initiative to add full-time Athletic Trainers in our high schools. This assists us with player & coach safety before, during and after athletic participation. Our high school programs participate in Gateway Conference tournaments and we honor all-conference athletes at an end of the year banquet. Our middle school athletic teams have the opportunity to compete for championships as well as honor all-conference athletes. It is note-worthy to mention that we are Title IX compliant and continue to increase female participation in all schools with sports. The district athletic office supports all district staff and many community partners.

Weaknesses

The coaching supplements in Duval County have not increased in over 20 years, while we have had a decreased funding for facilities & equipment. Our middle & high school athletic directors in schools take on multiple roles (teacher, dean, activities) which makes it difficult to manage all the needs of the sports programs throughout the school day. One very important weakness is the lack of parental support in our athletic programs.

Opportunities

The District Athletic office has many community scholarship opportunities which include: two Brooks Sports Medicine ($5,000 each), two 1010XL Scholar/Athlete of the Week ($2,500 each), three GCA Service Group ($1,000 each) and two Bono's All Academic Athlete ($1,000 each). Our students also participate in the Brooks Shadowing Experience and Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp internships. Several of our staff opportunities included professional development funding ($5,000 a year) from Huddle tickets. This allows for athletic directors to take LTC (Leadership Training Courses) toward certifications, sit for their CAA (Certified Athletic Administrator license) and attend state wide conferences by paying registration fees. We have many great partnerships with community organizations including the Dreams Come True Foundation, local college & universities as well as a strong military partnership. Student-athletes have SAT/ACT prep resources through our churches and upper level education institutions. Another great partnership is with JSMP as they provide free athletic screenings for student-athletes, educational opportunities for coaches and the overall safety at our events.

Threats

Unfortunately, there are threats to athletic events because of weather related cancellations. In the new world of social media, it has caused lower attendance at games which makes it difficult to pay expenses. We are also incurring increased costs (officials, security, transportation, equipment, uniforms, etc.) It is important to maintain a safe environment for all home athletic contests for fear of injury or litigation.

FACE Status Updates: Faith-based Partnerships

Brandon Mack
Supervisor,
Business/Faith-based Partnerships

Program Description:

Faith-based institutions and organizations throughout the city of Jacksonville serve as invaluable partners to the district. They partner with public schools to provide financial, in-kind, and/or human capital support for both students and school staff. The Supervisor of Business/Faith-Based Partnerships collaborates with faith-based leaders to organize efforts from such partners and strategically match faith-based institutions and organizations with schools and/or the district.

Implementation:

The Department of Family and Community Engagement serves as a liaison to develop and provide guidance for faith-based partnerships. Department staff consults with school staff as needed on ideas and strategies to identify and recruit faith-based partners on an ongoing basis, performs targeted recruitment of faith-based partners near local schools, and serves as a liaison to develop and frame new faith-based partnerships during the initial meetings. FACE staff attends faith-based meetings and conferences to build and strengthen relationships with those within the faith-based community as well.

FACE also leverages faith-based partnerships to provide information on and/or make presentations on district initiatives and priorities. For example, during the 2017-2018 school year, FACE partnered with the Superintendent of the North East District of the Florida Conference of the United Methodist Church to provide a workshop for all of the pastors under his leadership within Jacksonville. Pastors and other church leadership heard presentations from the School Choice Department, School Counseling, and the Parent Academy. The day ended with information on how to build or strengthen their partnerships with schools. This gave them the tools to better support those students and parents within their congregations.

In addition to the department's continued efforts, FACE has also partnered with Transform Jacksonville to host a faith-based partnership breakfast annually during the month of February, which has allowed principals and faith-based leaders to come together to discuss the opportunity for partnership. The focus of that event is identifying faith-based partners for those schools without one and strengthening the relationships of existing partnerships.

Currently, nearly 300 faith-based partners are serving our schools and the district. However, not all schools are connected with faith-based partners yet. It is the department's goal to have every school connected to a meaningful faith-based partnership.

Next Steps (Plans moving forward)

- Host faith-based partnership meetings to give partners information on topics such as the district's legislative agenda, school board policy, and how to appropriately engage with schools.
- Explore options for developing a database that can be used to gather more information on partnerships as well as communicate with current and prospective partners more seamlessly.
- Targeted recruitment of faith-based partners near local schools without one will continue along with working through various faith-based associations to identify prospective partners.
- Professional development will be provided to give school leadership tips and guidance on how to engage faith-based partners.

SWOT Analysis: Faith-based Partnerships

SWOT Analysis	Strengths 	FACE staff has strong relationships within the faith-based community. These relationships not only exist with individual partners, but with larger associations as well. There are also several faith-based engagement groups that are nondenominational that we have a relationship with that we can leverage.
	Weaknesses 	We need to move away from paper partnership forms and begin to move partners towards electronic agreements, which will allow us to more easily capture and review data.
	Opportunities 	A great opportunity within the city is to expand faith-based partnerships to include more diverse religious groups.
	Threats 	Within the community, organizations and other areas of government are realizing the power of faith-based partnerships and trying to capitalize on them. That creates competing interests outside of the ones we already face internally with the varying needs of schools and departments.

FACE Status Updates: Business and Community Partnerships

Program Description:

One of the responsibilities of the Department of Family and Community Engagement (FACE) is to solicit partners to assist at both the school and district level. The district currently enjoys a multitude of business and community-based partnerships to support both the district and individual schools. The department supports schools in connecting with business partners to provide financial assistance for ancillary expenses, in-kind contributions, and human capital. Maintaining existing business and community-based partnerships, as well as developing new ones, remains a priority for FACE.

Implementation:

FACE staff nurtures ongoing relationships with business and community partners and directs new support to schools as necessary. Partnerships are typically developed in one of three ways: 1. Prospective partners contact FACE to explore opportunities to partner. 2. Prospective partners connect directly with schools. 3. FACE targets specific partners to provide support to schools and/or the district.

When prospective business and community partners contact FACE about partnership opportunities, the Supervisor of Business/Faith-based Partnerships schedules an initial meeting to discuss needs of the district and their area of interest. That time is also used to assess their available time and resources. Once the identified school or department is contacted about the potential partnership, a meeting is scheduled at their site with the point of contact for the partner to discuss the partnership. In cases where potential partners contact schools directly, FACE is often brought in to provide guidance and support. In the final scenario, prospective partners are identified by the supervisor for specific school and/or district needs. FACE works closely with schools to perform targeted recruitment of partners near their sites or business that specialize in the area of an existing or developing school program. Once the ask is made of the partner and they agree, the principal or that department leader is brought into the discussion to finalize the relationship. District staff serves as a liaison to develop and frame new business partnerships.

The department also consults with school staff as needed to provide them with ideas and strategies to identify and recruit business partners on an ongoing basis. FACE attends a number of networking events as well to build and strengthen relationships with the business community and other community partners. FACE staff holds board positions in organizations such as the Arlington Council of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce. In addition, FACE provides presentations by request for existing and potential partners regarding current district initiatives.

One of the challenges has been aligning resources and partners to reduce or eliminate duplication of effort and become more strategic in our requests. There are currently over 1,500 business partners supporting our schools and the district at varying levels (see Appendix). The department is currently assessing the community and business partners aligned with each school, and then providing strategic recruitment of additional partnerships to support those schools that have fewer resources.

Next Steps (Plans moving forward)

- Explore options for developing a database that can be used to gather more information on partnerships as well as communicate with current and prospective partners more seamlessly.
- Targeted recruitment of business partners near local schools without one and for specific school programs will continue and expand.
- Professional development will be provided to give school leadership tips and guidance on how to engage partners along with best practices.

SWOT Analysis: Business and Community Partnerships

SWOT Analysis	Strengths 	FACE staff has strong relationships within the business community, and those relationships are continuously expanding through avenues such as the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce.
	Weaknesses 	We need to move away from paper partnership forms and begin to move partners towards electronic agreements, which will allow us to more easily capture and evaluate data.
	Opportunities 	A great opportunity is to engage new businesses in a more structured way as they come into the city. FACE continues to look for ways to do that in partnership with the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce. This would allow us to share our needs and build relationships early.
	Threats 	Businesses are constantly being called upon to sponsor local events with financial or in-kind contributions. That creates competing interests outside of the ones we already face internally with the varying needs of schools and departments.

FACE Status Updates: Volunteer Management

Program Description:

Volunteers are a vital part of student success in Duval County Public Schools. Over 23,000 volunteer background screening applications were processed this year alone. The employees of the Department of Family and Community Engagement (FACE) works hand and hand with volunteer liaisons at schools to encourage interested parents, guardians and community members to join us in our mission to provide every student with a high quality education. FACE provides oversight for volunteer management.

Implementation:

Oversight for school volunteers is handled according to School Board Policy 9.63 which provides guidance for school volunteers and the screening process. Per board policy 9.63: Section II, volunteers who are at the school for a “one-time special event” such as guest speakers and celebrity readers do not need to undergo a volunteer background screening. However, everyone else must complete an application and undergo a criminal background screening, which is done at no cost to the volunteer. The Department of Family and Community Engagement (FACE) works in collaboration with Datafacts, the contracted background screening provider, to screen volunteers in a timely manner. On average, volunteer applications are cleared within three to five business days. The screenings expire every two years.

Once a volunteer has submitted an application, they currently have two ways to check the status of their application. They can either contact FACE directly or contact the school at which they desire to volunteer. Each school has been asked to designate at least two staff members that can check the status of volunteers. The primary person is typically the front desk clerk, and the secondary person varies. Designated school staff verifies volunteer clearance using the online portal. Anyone, including parents, who will visit the campus for volunteer purposes outside of the exceptions listed in board policy must complete this process.

FACE is also working with another service provider, Samaritan Technologies, to develop a volunteer registration system which will allow the department to effectively manage volunteers and communicate with them at scale.

Each Duval County Public School has priorities set by their school leadership team that are based on the needs of the students and staff. Where applicable, volunteer or parent liaisons assist by aligning volunteers and partners with school needs. In other cases, principals’ designate assistant principals or others to assume this role. Principals have oversight regarding volunteers and volunteer opportunities at each school. Per board policy, “The school principal has the final authority of volunteer access and assignment for his/her school.”

Next Steps (Plans moving forward)

- Complete Samaritan volunteer database that can be used to gather more information on volunteer engagement as well as communicate with volunteer about opportunities that exist within the district more seamlessly.
- Explore additional opportunities to recognize volunteers for their contributions at both the school level and on a larger scale.

SWOT Analysis: Volunteer Management

SWOT Analysis	Strengths 	FACE staff has large volunteer base that is committed to support schools. This base consists of parents and guardians, business and community partners, faith-based partners, and other community stakeholders.
	Weaknesses 	While volunteer contact information is stored within the background screening portals, we need a volunteer database. This will allow us to communicate with volunteers more easily and have a better idea of who is connected to what schools and organizations. This is already in progress.
	Opportunities 	There is untapped volunteer potential that we are not taking advantage of in the right way. Once the database it built, schools will be able to recruit specifically for their school and then engage those volunteers directly.
	Threats 	Jacksonville has a very large and influential nonprofit community that relies heavily on volunteer service and support. While much of the volunteer service given to those nonprofit organizations directly or indirectly supports our students and staff, at times those volunteer hours could be used more effectively elsewhere.

FACE Status Updates: State Level Awards

Program Description:

The Florida Department of Education offers a number of state-level award opportunities to recognize public schools that promote community involvement throughout the school year. These programs highlight outstanding practices in family and community engagement efforts, which are showcased and shared statewide. Recognition programs currently sponsored by the state include the Outstanding School Volunteer Award, the Silver School Award (Secondary only), Golden School Award, and the Five Star School Award. The goal is to encourage more schools to apply for these awards and to provide the necessary training and support to ensure that schools have the best chance of winning. These awards help recognize the great work being done within our schools and within the district. The Department of Family and Community Engagement (FACE) supports schools in submitting these awards.

Implementation:

Communication regarding the awards is key to ensuring successful applications are submitted by schools. Prior to the start of the school year, principals submit the names and contact information for their volunteer coordinator(s). Details about each award opportunity are shared with both the principal and their contact person through a variety of methods including the weekly briefing system and email. Reminders are also sent as deadlines approach. The Department of Family and Community Engagement's website is updated to reflect updated application forms and processes for submitting the awards for easy access by schools.

Volunteer Liaison and Five Star Trainings are held each year to provide the specific criteria of eligibility for each award, as well as submission deadlines and expectations. During the 2017-2018 school year, FACE held 18 Volunteer Liaison Trainings and 22 Five Star School Award trainings throughout the school year. These trainings were held during different times and on different days to give anyone who wanted to attend an opportunity to participate. This upcoming school year, two of each of these trainings will be held each month. Additionally, they will begin earlier during the week of preplanning to give principals an opportunity to get their staff to training prior to students returning.

Once FACE is notified of the award winners, the information is shared with the superintendent, chief of schools, regional superintendents, and the Communications Department. Then arrangements are made for recognition depending on the award. Below is information on two of the major awards.

Outstanding School Volunteer Award:

All district level winners of the Outstanding School Volunteer Award are submitted to the Florida Department of Education for consideration for the regional level awards. Mr. Fred Wilson, our senior category winner for the district was also recognized as the Outstanding School Volunteer Winner for the senior category for Region II. He received a letter of recognition from the Commissioner of Education and was subsequently recognized at a school board meeting. In addition, our partners at the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp allowed him to throw the first pitch at one of their games and bring his family along with him to enjoy the game to thank him for his volunteer service.

District level winners of the 2017-2018 Outstanding School Volunteer of the Year Award were as follows:

Category: Youth

School: Sabal Palm Elementary Winner: Mr. Jacob Hancock

Category: Adult

School: Westside High School Winner: Ms. Charis Scurry

Category: Senior

School: Neptune Beach Elementary Winner: Mr. Fred Wilson

Five Star School Award:

The Five Star School Award was created by the Commissioner's Community Involvement Council and is presented annually to those schools that have shown evidence of exemplary community involvement. Winners of the Five Star School Award must receive at least a "C" school grade to be eligible to obtain that recognition.

The process for this award starts at the beginning of each school year with Five Star School Award Trainings. This year, those trainings will begin in August during preplanning. Throughout the year, there will be two trainings per month to support schools in preparing their portfolios and applications. As the deadline approaches, the trainings transform into smaller work sessions to assist schools with individual questions and concerns and to offer suggestions and support.

FACE will receive all submissions two weeks prior to the deadline. Those portfolios and applications are reviewed prior to submitting them to the superintendent's office for signature. The next step is to submit all eligible entries to the Florida Department of Education and order any awards that accompany each successful application. Finally, the department arranges for public recognition of award winning schools at school board meetings and through district communication tools.

FACE received 29 applications and portfolios for the Five Star School Award, which is the highest number of the district has submitted. The Florida Department of Education has informed us that 28 of these schools are eligible to receive the award following their release of school grades. Eligible schools include the following:

1. Alimacani Elementary School
2. Annie R. Morgan Elementary School
3. Atlantic Beach Elementary School
4. Baldwin Middle/High School
5. Beauclerc Elementary School
6. Chets Creek Elementary School
7. Crystal Springs Elementary School
8. Dinsmore Elementary School
9. Duncan U. Fletcher Middle School
10. Enterprise Learning Academy
11. Fishweir Elementary School
12. Holiday Hill Elementary School
13. Jacksonville Beach Elementary School
14. John N.C. Stockton Elementary School
15. Loretto Elementary School
16. Mandarin High School
17. Mandarin Oaks Elementary School
18. Mayport Coastal Sciences Middle School
19. Neptune Beach Elementary School
20. Oceanway Elementary School
21. Ortega Elementary School
22. R.V. Daniels Elementary School
23. Reynolds Lane Elementary School
24. River City Science Academy at Mandarin
25. Sabal Palm Elementary School
26. Seabreeze Elementary School
27. Thomas Jefferson Elementary School
28. Twin Lakes Academy Elementary School

Category: Senior
School: Neptune Beach Elementary Winner:
Mr. Fred Wilson

Next Steps (Plans moving forward)

- Explore additional opportunities to recognize award winners through partners such as the Jacksonville Jaguars, Jacksonville Giants, local family entertainment venues, and local media.
- Share awards calendar with the Duval County Council of PTAs to ask school PTA presidents to encourage their principals to apply.

SWOT Analysis: State Level Awards

SWOT Analysis	Strengths 	Schools are more aware of the opportunity to submit these awards. This year, there was a targeted effort to get the information directly into the hands of the people that prepare these awards for schools so that they are not accidentally overlooked by school administrators with their other responsibilities.
	Weaknesses 	Not all schools have volunteer liaisons or parent liaisons that can complete the award applications due to challenges funding those positions. The result is that you often have administrators such as assistant principals being responsible for submitting these awards.
	Opportunities 	There is an opportunity to do more recognition for schools that win these state level awards as well as the volunteers that win the individual awards. This will likely increase interest in submitting applications the following year.
	Threats 	The greatest threat with state-levels awards is always competing priorities. With increasing demands placed upon principals, they often have staff tasked with other duties. While these awards are a positive for schools, there is not a penalty for not submitting so that drops its placement on the priority list.

FACE Status Updates: Community Education

Program Description:

The DCPS community education program was established in 1975 and continues to utilize school buildings to offer enrichment opportunities to students and the surrounding community. These fee-based courses last approximately 6-8 weeks on varying topics based on the community's needs and interests. Funds from the community education program support the program's instructors, course materials and provides additional funding for the maintenance of the school facility. Community Education provides tutoring, industry certifications, and recreational opportunities for stakeholders when there is enough interest to support and fund the program.

Implementation:

Community Education courses are added based on the community's support and funding, as each course should have enough participation to cover all costs for that particular offering. This model has also been effective in expanding the district's Driver Education program to after-hours and weekend offerings. Certification programs such as phlebotomy have also been offered in schools, further increasing the community's professional development and employment options. An added benefit to the program is the increased exposure of school buildings and the work that's being done therein. Thus, schools are utilized and highlighted, the community is gaining additional tools for advancement, and income is being generated in neighborhoods.

Next Steps:

Community Education Programs are working to provide additional pathways for the community to earn industry certification as well as increased enrichment opportunities through growing community partnerships.

SWOT Analysis: Community Education

SWOT Analysis

Strengths

Community education programs have a wide variety of courses. These programs have the ability to adapt their course offerings to the community in which they serve. Having close relationships with the community allows these programs to thrive and provide additional publicity for schools; as Community Education connects with the strategic goals of the district by Engaging Parents, Caregivers, and Community. With the strategic Goal in mind the program continues to be innovative to engage community stakeholders.

Currently the Community education Program uses Samaritan, which is a system designed to track community programs and the individuals who register. This data is used to re-engage the participants to advise of changes and additions to the program. Samaritan also provides a site for online registration for Community Education.

Weaknesses

Despite the many strengths of our district, there has occasionally been a lack of communication between departments, resulting in under-utilizing certain partnerships, while failing to capitalize on others.

Opportunities

The Community education website, in conjunction with the variety of advertisement opportunities, provides publicity to all stakeholders.

Threats

Lack of participation from the community that may cause the program not to be self-supporting.

FACE Status Updates: Extended Day

Program Description:

The Extended Day program is a fee-based program that allows students to arrive to school as early as 7:00 a.m., and stay as late as 6:00 p.m. on school days.

Implementation:

The program was implemented to supplement and broaden the educational enrichment opportunities of DCPS students, and to provide quality childcare before and/or after the beginning or end of school respectively. Current programs are for grades K-5 with the goal of providing a safe and structured learning environment for each child that attends. Additionally, summer enrichment camps are provided at select schools to provide summer programs for youth in the community.

Next Steps:

DCPS Extended Day programs will continue to work with the Department of Children and Families (DCF) to identify best practices and next steps for programs based on site-monitoring evaluations. Additionally, parent nights will be implemented for each program to increase parent participation in schools.

SWOT Analysis: Extended Day

SWOT Analysis

Strengths

Extended Day Programs are Self Supporting and the district does not place any funding in to the program. These programs work closely with schools, parents, and the community as they work with students to provide emotional, social, and educational support. Having close relationships with the community allows these programs to thrive and provide additional publicity for schools. The Extended Day Program connects with the strategic goals of the district by Engaging Parents, Caregivers, and Community. With the strategic Goal in mind the program continues to innovate in ways to engage community stakeholders.

Weaknesses

Despite the many strengths of our district, there has occasionally been a lack of communication between departments, resulting in under-utilizing certain partnerships, while failing to capitalize on others.

Despite the program being self-sufficient, occasionally having a missed communication between programs has resulted in late submission of documents to the district office.

Opportunities

The Extended Day webpage was created May 2015. The creation of this page has allowed parents to learn more about the extended day program from the district level. The creation of a parent database will provide easier contact to parents to provide them a transparent view into the program from all levels.

Threats

Lack of participation from the community that may cause the program not to be self-supporting.

FACE Status Updates: Driver Education

Background:

The purpose of this program is to introduce students to the highway transportation system and to strategies which will develop driving knowledge and skills related to today's and tomorrow's motorized society, and provide an in-depth study of the scope and nature of accident problems and their solutions. A prerequisite for students is that they must be at least 15 years of age to take Driver's Education. Students may possess a learner's permit or an operator's license. The first 5 hours of the course will be devoted to the study of drug and alcohol abuse, and the Florida Driver's Handbook (Drug, Alcohol, and Traffic Awareness – DATA Class). Upon completion of this segment, students needing to get a Learner's License will be tested. Students applying for a Learner's license must be present for all 5 hours of the DATA Class, no exceptions.

Implementation:

The Driver Education Program operated in 5 programs during the regular school day and 1 part-time program during the school day as well. This brings the program to a total of 6. The program also operates after school in the Community Education Program. Operating in both areas allows for the district to work with over 5,000 students per year. There are 2 phases to the program. The phases are the driving phase which consists of range driving and street driving. Also, the successful completion of the classroom components.

DRIVING PHASE

Range Skills Test – serpentine, straight backing, 3 point turnabout, angle parking, parallel parking, perpendicular parking, and quick stop drills. Students are permitted to be re-tested on skills they failed by scheduling a retake with the instructor on an individual basis.

Street Test – must have a Learner's Permit – students (three at a time) are taken out on the street at least once and usually drive for approximately 20 minutes. Students doing poorly on the street test will be given a second chance.

CLASSROOM PHASE (Driver Right Textbook)

Chapters – 1 (You are the Driver), 2 (Signs, Signals, and Roadway Markings), 4 (Managing Risk with the I.P.D.E. Process), 5 (Natural Laws and Car Control), 6 (Performing Basic Vehicle Maneuvers), 7 (Negotiating Intersections), 9 (Driving in Urban Areas), 10 (Driving in Rural Areas), 11 (Driving on Expressways), 12 (Driving in Adverse Conditions), and 15 (Alcohol, and Other Drugs, and Driving)

Next Steps:

The driver education program looks to explore the possibility of adding more schools during the school day. Also the goal is to create a large pool of trained instructors to teach the program either during the school day or in the after-school program.

SWOT Analysis: Driver Education

SWOT Analysis	Strengths	This program is designed to provide high school students in grades 9 – 12 the opportunity to become safer drivers in the community. The program will allow students the minimum of 30% of behind-the-wheel time as the training guidelines state of the Dori Slosberg Act. The Driver Education Program serves the needs of district students in both areas. Instruction in Driver Education is aligned with the standards-based focus of the school district. Additionally, the ability to operate a motor vehicle safely in Florida is an essential developmental task faced by all students. The training provided through the Driver Education program using distracted driving seminars, simulated events through video instruction, and street driving assists students in developing these skills. The funding requested From the City of Jacksonville serves to enhance the delivery of instruction provided to students through Driver Education.
	Weaknesses	Driver education is limited by the number of instructors it has to teach classes. Some of the instructors are part time and more are needed to work with the students as street drivers.
	Opportunities	The Driver Education Program will continue to recruit instructors to teach programs during the school day and the after-school program for Community Education.
	Threats	Other driving schools in town are in competition with our program.

FACE Status Updates: JROTC

Program Description:

The Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (JROTC) is a federal program whose purpose is to instill in students in the US secondary educational institutions the values of citizenship, service to the United States, and personal responsibility and a sense of accomplishment. The JROTC program promotes community involvement by developing patriotism, citizenship, self-reliance and responsiveness to authority. The JROTC program also depends on many community members to ensure the program's success, and correlating JROTC programs with FACE initiatives is an area upon which we plan to further build in the 2018-2019 school year.

Floyd Evans
District Resource,
JROTC

Additional objectives were established by the service departments of the Department of Defense.

- Developing citizenship and patriotism
- Developing self-reliance and responsiveness to all authority
- Improving the ability to communicate well both orally and in writing
- Developing an appreciation of the importance of physical fitness
- Increasing a respect for the role of the U.S. Armed Forces in support of national objectives
- Developing a knowledge of team building skills and basic military skills
- Taking 3–4 years of the course grants cadets the ability to rank higher if they pursue a military career.

DCPS JROTC cadets preform many hours of community service. DCPS currently has 14 JROTC programs, with 40 instructors that are retired military and hold a Federal JROTC Certification from their branch of service.

Implementation:

Each JROTC school has a variety of business partners or veteran's associations that support many of their activities. The cadets volunteer throughout their community. Instructors and concerned JROTC parents are constantly reaching out to community leaders and businesses, as well as running fund raisers. Funds are needed for all of their transportation, event registrations, housing, or meals.

JROTC ENROLLMENT

Next Steps:

- Funding assistance for travel
- Professional Development for Instructors
- Coordinate Annual Military Inspections

Based on Department of Defense guidelines on the cadet-to-instructor ratio, JROTC enrollment is capped at 3,370. The military does allow for some overages based on percentages. District staff continues to work closely with schools to monitor program enrollment to ensure compliance.

Other FACE Areas

District Administrators Investing in the Lives of Youth (DAILY)

Program Description:

In previous years, FACE has coordinated the District Administrators Investing in the Lives of Youth (DAILY) initiative in partnership with Junior Achievement (JA) of North Florida and Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Florida (BBBS). The initiative is an effort to keep district administrators connected to the classroom by experiencing both the joys and challenges of classroom teachers and/or connect with a middle-school student during one of the most transformational periods in their lives. It has the added benefit of connecting or reconnecting district staff with schools, teachers, and students, to better understand the primary purpose of the services each staff member provides at the district level. This is especially true when district administrators push into novice teachers' classrooms for involvement, as the administrator models classroom management and instruction over an ongoing period. The initiative was an administrator-mandate from the Superintendent in the past, and has won the Jacksonville Business Journal's Innovators in Education award.

In its inaugural year over 5,000 students received Junior Achievement's financial literacy, entrepreneurship and workforce readiness programs taught by over 200 district administrators. Each program is correlated to the standards, and is teacher-requested. Student numbers declined by more than 40% in the 2013-2014 school year, bringing the total number of students reached to 2,802. The initiative was then shifted to FACE and a partnership providing middle-school mentoring through BBBS was formed in the 2014-2015 school year, bringing the total number of students reached to 4,500. The goal was met for the 2015-2016 school year, but has continuously declined once the mandate was removed.

Junior Achievement

Implementation:

Administrators teaching the program are asked to select which class/grade level they would like to teach from a list supplied by Junior Achievement. A one-hour training is required for first-time participants, and a 30-minute refresher training is offered for returning-participants. The FACE department ensures the accountability of participants, to ensure those who are required to participate in one or both initiatives participate. Junior Achievement handles the day-to-day aspects of the program following the training and distribution of program materials. JA also ensures the verification of course-completions.

Other FACE Areas

Big Brothers Big Sisters

Implementation:

The Middle School Mentoring Initiative is in partnership with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Florida and utilizes district administrators and other district staff to fill the void of middle school mentors within the organization. This initiative has been developed as part of the Middle School Plan to increase the number of mentors for our early adolescents. In this school-based model, district staff volunteer to meet with their mentee for one hour weekly during the regular school year, at the school site.

Training session dates are set up with Big Brothers Big Sisters and a website was deployed to allow district staff to sign up for participation. After training, potential members are scheduled for a one-on-one interview to complete the screening process. Once the screening and training process is completed, mentors are matched to a middle school student. The mentor/mentee meetings take place weekly, with ongoing support provided by a Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Florida facilitator.

United Way

Implementation:

The Family and Community Engagement department also coordinates the United Way campaign for the district. In the past few years, there have been challenges in coordinating a timely start to the campaign that we do not foresee to be an issue this year. Ideally a kickoff breakfast takes place at the Schultz during the first part of a normally-scheduled Principals' meeting with training for campaign chairs in a separate room immediately thereafter.

Other FACE Areas

Million Father March

The Million Father March is part of a national effort to get fathers more engaged in their child(ren)'s education. Fathers and other male role models are specifically targeted to bring their children on the first day of school. This allows schools to make a connection with them and obtain contact information to keep them informed and engaged throughout the remainder of the school year.

Implementation:

Although this is a national effort supported by local partners, the district plays a role in ensuring that the event runs smoothly. Family and Community Engagement (FACE) works in conjunction with the district's Communications Department to develop advertising materials, which are then distributed to schools and the community. Stickers are distributed to recognize those fathers and male role models who bring their child(ren) to school on the day of the event. FACE staff works with business, faith-based, and other community partners to identify support for schools in need of breakfast items to thank fathers for participating. Most importantly, FACE staff provides schools with information on how to utilize the Million Father March to build volunteer capacity and continuously engage fathers throughout the school year. Participants are encouraged to use the #MillionFatherMarch hashtag on all social media platforms to share their first day pictures. On this day the date for the Florida Department of Education's "Dad's Take Your Child to School Day" is shared with dads to continue fatherhood outreach.
