

Responsibilities of High School Students

1. Attend all training sessions.
2. Participate in the creation of innovative lesson plans and materials.
3. Be prepared for classroom presentations. Have manipulatives (as needed) and all necessary paperwork
4. Maintain folders for each student. These will include student projects, assignments, and assessments.
5. Communicate any concerns to elementary and high school teachers as well as Ms. Ruth Jernigan (jerniganr@duvalschools.org) or Ms. Ingrid Carias (carias11@duvalschools.org).
6. Exemplary behavior is expected.
7. Inspire an appreciation for multi-culturalism and community service.
8. Students should email or phone the extended day director immediately if they are unable to fulfill their teaching obligation on any given day.
9. High school students will complete an evaluation form at the end of their service.

